

Bellagio-Como Lake

Bellagio, also called the "Pearl of Lake Como" is a renowned holiday resort, famous for its picturesque location right on the southern branch of Lake Como, with the Alps visible across the lake to the north. Its history is marked by an ancient Roman presence and a defensive role in the Middle Ages. It was frequented by crowned heads, kings and emperors: Maximilian I; the Empress of Russia Maria Feodorowna; Francis I, Ferdinand and Franz Joseph, emperors of Austria; Kaiser Wilhelm; the King of Albania, Leopold I of Belgium, Queen Marie of Romania, Umberto and Margherita of Savoy, King Farouk of Egypt. Many artists and writers: Giuseppe Parini, Ippolito Pindemonte, Alessandro Manzoni, Tommaso Grossi, Ippolito Nievo, Stendhal, Gustave Flaubert, Filippo Tommaso Marinetti. And in recent years, many film actors have also been fascinated by Bellagio: Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, Otto Fischer, Maria Schell, Clark Gable, Robert Mitchum, Romy Schneider and Philippe Noiret (to shoot A Woman at a Window), Al Pacino and Marthe Keller (for Bobby Deerfield), Adriano Celentano and Renato Pozzetto, Alberto Sordi, George Lucas, Natalie Portman, Ewan McGregor, Hyden Christensen, Robert De Niro, George Clooney...

Annone Lake

It is the easternmost and largest of the Brianza lakes, divided into two basins by the narrow Isella peninsula - which penetrates the lake for almost a kilometre - and, opposite, by the promontory on which the town of Annone (LC) stands.

Pusiano Lake

Pusiano (or Eupilii) is perhaps the most beautiful body of water among the five Brianza lakes. The entire basin is part of the Lambrò Valley Natural Park and is, therefore, a protected area. The small Isola dei Cipressi, privately owned, is located in the lake.
